

DARYN R. CAMBRIDGE

5928 Merritt Pl, Falls Church, VA 22041
daryncambridge@gmail.com, 703-475-8195
www.daryncambridge.com

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Oct. 2013 – Present
Washington, DC

United States Institute of Peace – Senior Program Officer

- Lead curriculum development, pedagogy, and educational design for all online, instructor-led and self-paced courses offered through the Global Campus – USIP’s online learning platform designed to teach and learn critical peacebuilding skills.
- Host and produce the Peace Frequency – a podcast featuring interviews and conversations with influential peacebuilders from all over the world.
- Manage team of distance learning professionals, programmers, and graphic designers.
- Design and facilitate trainings in online teaching methods.
- Teach and facilitate online and on-site Academy courses.

April 2012 – Present
Washington, DC

Freedom Beat Recordings – Co-Founder

- Produce films and educational materials that explore the forces of nonviolent action through the power of music and musicians.

May 2009 – Present
Washington, DC

American University – Peace Educator in Residence (2010-2013) & Adjunct Professor

- Design, plan, and coordinate peace education initiatives and events between and among different departments at AU, local organizations, and DC area schools.
- Design and teach undergraduate course, "Education for International Development" (EDU-285),
- Design and teach graduate course, "Education for Peace and Conflict Resolution" (SIS-619), a continuing education course for DC Public School teachers, counselors, and administrators.
- Design and teach graduate course, "Peace Pedagogy" (EDU-596).
- All courses have been designed and taught in both onsite and online formats.

June 2009 – Oct. 2013
Washington, DC

International Center on Nonviolent Conflict – Senior Director, Learning & Digital Strategies

- Developed and implemented ways to communicate, teach, and disseminate information, content and educational resources via professional level courses, university seminars, webinars, online learning, workshops, educational events, social networks, and digital media.
- Developed strategy and managed content for organization’s website.
- Facilitated workshops for community groups, educators, and organizations.

Sept. 2008 – Apr. 2009
Washington, DC

Common Cause – Director, Youth Programs

- Helped direct a national campus organizing program at 76 colleges and universities and managed an office-based policy internship program.
- Mentored and trained students how to organize grassroots issue campaigns,
- Designed issue campaigns and educational events geared towards college and university campuses.
- Met with members of Congress to address policy and legislation.
- Built partnerships with and lead outreach to other youth advocacy organizations.
- Gave presentations and conducted workshops on various topics at conferences and on campuses.

Sept. 2006 – Sept. 2008
Washington, DC

The Democracy Matters Institute – Assistant Director

- Mentored and trained student organizers on twenty college campuses.
- Started the Democracy Matters High School Fellows Program.
- Gave presentations and workshops on various topics at colleges, high schools, and conferences.
- Designed and maintained new website for organization.
- Created promotional materials and multimedia resources.
- Assisted the Executive Director in administrative planning and implementation.

Sept. 2007 – May 2008
Washington, DC

American University – Graduate Assistant

- Conducted research for professors in the School of Education, Teaching and Health.
- Managed department listserv and updated department website.
- Taught session of an undergraduate class – International Education and Development.

Jun. 2006 – Aug. 2006
Amherst, MA

Putney Student Travel, Excel Program – Teacher

- Designed and taught two, college level courses – "The History of War" and "International Relations."
- Helped students organize their own community action initiatives focusing on an international issue of their choosing.

Jan. 2004 – Jun. 2006
Alexandria, VA

The Close Up Foundation – Program Supervisor, Program Instructor

- Interviewed, trained, and supervised a staff of fifteen program instructors.
- Designed and facilitated civic education, civil society training, and current issue workshops for students from all across America and the globe.

- Received over 350 hours of training in the fields of experiential education, community building, and leadership development.
- Received "Outstanding Program Staff Award" and "Above and Beyond the Call of Duty Award."

May 2004 – Aug. 2004
Arlington, VA

The Student Conservation Association – Crew Leader

- Led group of high school students in conservation projects around the DC area.

CONSULTANCIES

April 2013
Bethesda, MD

Tomorrow's Teaching – Facilitator

- Designed and facilitated a workshop on cross-cultural learning and leadership.

January 2013
Washington, DC

LearnServe International – Co-Facilitator

- Co-designed and facilitated a workshop on cross-cultural learning and leadership.

September 2012
Washington, DC

United States Institute of Peace – Workshop Designer

- Designed a workshop on civil resistance and citizen journalism to be facilitated by USIP staff for participants in the Future Generations Graduate School.

Sept 2011 - Present
Online

Institute for Technology and Social Change – Facilitator/Advisor

- Presenter and facilitator for the online courses, "Global Innovations for Digital Organizing: New Media Tactics for Democratic Change" and "New Technologies for Educational Practice."
- Provided support and educational guidance for course and material development.

August 2011
Manila, Philippines

International Vietnamese Youth Conference (Dai Hoi 6) – Trainer

- Facilitated two experiential workshops on the theory, history, and strategy of nonviolent action.

July 2011
Washington, DC

The University of the Middle East – Trainer

- Facilitated a workshop on methods and tools for teaching about history and theory of nonviolence.

June 2011
Washington, DC

The Student Conservation Association – Trainer

- Co-facilitated a daylong workshop for crew leaders on conflict resolution and mediation skills.

June 2010
Madison, WI

United States Institute of Peace – Trainer

- Facilitated a series of workshops on teaching about nonviolent civic action at a conference for professional educators hosted by the University of Wisconsin, Madison.

Sept 2009 – May 2010
Washington, DC

United States Association for the University of Peace – Trainer

- Designed and facilitated a series of professional development teacher trainings focused on incorporating peace building, conflict resolution, and brain based learning skills into the classroom.

Aug 2009 – June 2010
Washington, DC

One World Education – Learn Shop Facilitator

- Designed and facilitated workshops on peace building and conflict resolution for youth serving organizations.

Oct 2009 - Present
Washington, DC

Learn-Serve International – Facilitator

- Design and co-facilitate workshops on cross-cultural learning for high school youth.

Spring 2008
Washington, DC

Dialogue Development Group – Facilitator

- Co-facilitated a seven-session dialogue on politics and the 2008 election for a group of graduate and undergraduate students at American University.

Feb. 2007 – Sept. 2007
Washington, DC

Philotic, Inc. – Consultant, Non-Profit Outreach

- Assisted in the design and promotion of the Causes application on Facebook.

Mar. 2005 – Sept. 2005
Washington, DC

Remember the Grays – Consultant

- Designed and maintained website for citizen group;
- Developed promotional materials.

Summer 2003
Falls Church, VA

Pelican Publishing – Consultant, Development

- Designed and maintained website for live concert recording company;
- Developed promotional materials;
- Trained employees in live audio recording.

Summer 2000 & 2002
South Africa &
Uganda

World Bank – Workshop Assistant

- Helped administer two World Bank workshops on "Assuring the Quality of Bank Operation in Africa."

ACADEMIC BACKGROUND

Jan. 2007 – May 2008
Washington, DC

American University – M.A. International Training and Education

- Professional Certificate, International Peace and Conflict Resolution
- Participant in 3 courses (6 credits) at AU's Peacebuilding and Development Institute.
- Presented original academic work at the Gandhi/King Conference in Memphis, TN and the Global Nonviolence Student Conference at James Madison University in Harrisonburg, VA.

Aug. 1999 – June 2003
Middlebury, VT

Middlebury College – B.A. Liberal Arts

- English/Philosophy Joint Major & Geography Minor.
- Dean's List for 3 semesters and College Scholar for 1 semester.

ADDITIONAL EDUCATIONAL EXPERIENCE

June 2014
South Bend, IN

Summer Institute for Teaching Peace in the 21st Century

- Attended and presented at this 5 days institute organized by the Kroc Institute for International Peace Studies at Notre Dame University.

Feb 2014
Baltimore, MD

Intercultural Development Inventory (IDI) Qualifying Seminar

- Completed a 2-day training to be licensed as a qualified administrator of the Intercultural Development Inventory®.

Oct 2013 – Nov 2013
Online

Video Games and Learning – University of Wisconsin-Madison

- Completed a 7-week, online course offered through the Coursera MOOC platform.

May 2013
Powell, OH

Advanced Seminar in Kingian Nonviolence – Institute for Human Rights and Responsibilities

- 6 day residential program exploring the roots of nonviolence that influenced Dr. Martin Luther King's philosophy on nonviolent direct action and the impact that had on the US Civil Rights Movement
- Read all of Dr. Martin Luther King's books.

Sept 2012 – Oct 2012
Online

Gamification – University of Pennsylvania, Wharton School of Business

- Completed an 8-week, online course offered through the Coursera MOOC platform.
- The course was delivered through the online learning platform, Coursera and developed by professors at the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Business.

December 2011
Santa Barbara, CA

Peace Education Masters Class – National Peace Academy

- One of 8 participants in a peace education master class facilitated by two of the most prominent peace educators in the world – Betty Reardon and Tony Jenkins.

July 2011
Burlington, VT

National Peace Academy – Peacebuilding Peacelearning Intensive

- Participant in weeklong program on strategies and processes for building peace systems.
- Developed a peace education community action initiative

Feb 2011 – July 2011
Online

Sheffield College – Learning to Teach Online (LeTOL)

- Participant in 3-credit, graduate level, online course on how to teach and facilitate online course.
- Designed a series of online learning modules on citizen journalism and civil resistance.

June 2011, 2010, &
2009
Medford, MA

Tufts University – Fletcher Summer Institute on the Advanced Study of Nonviolent Conflict

- Attended a five-day institute at Tufts University's Fletcher School as a participant and presenter from the International Center on Nonviolent Conflict.

May 2011
Mexico

School of Authentic Journalism

- Participant in a 10-day workshop on strategies and skills for incorporating citizen journalism into social movements;
- Co-facilitated sessions on how to leverage social media for video production and distribution.

February 2011
Philadelphia, PA

Training for Change – How to Teach Theory

- Participated in Training for Change's 4-day workshop on incorporating the experiential learning cycle in conveying and communicating theoretical ideas and concepts in educational settings.

November 2009
Philadelphia, PA

Training for Change – Training for Social Action Trainers

- Participated in Training for Change's 3-day workshop on incorporating the experiential learning cycle in organizing communities and groups around issues of social justice.

Sept 2009 – Oct 2009
Oct 2010 – Dec 2010
Washington, DC

USIP – Civil Resistance and the Dynamics of Nonviolent Conflict

- Participated in and helped organize a seven-week professional level course, which focused on the theoretical and strategic elements on civil resistance;
- Presented modules on nonviolent strategies and tactics, mobilization, and digital activism.

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

August 2016 – Present

Montessori School of Northern Virginia – Room Parent

- Setup and manage the class website
- Help coordinate volunteer opportunities for parents and families

Nov 2015 - Present

One Common Unity – Vice Chair, Board of Directors

- Provide guidance and feedback on organizations strategic direction and decisions.
- Lead organizer for the One Common Unity Peace Ride – a fundraising cycling event.

April 2015 – Dec 2015

One World Youth Project – Advisory Board Member

- Provide guidance and feedback on organizations strategic direction and decisions.

June 2013 – Present

Peace and Justice Studies Association – Board Member

- Social media chair 2013 – 2015
- Mini-grants chair 2015 - present

May 2010 – Present

Democracy Matters Institute – Board Member

- Coordinate and collaborate with other board members on organizational strategy.

March 2010 – Oct.
2014

Institute for Technology and Social Change – Advisory Board Member

- Provide advice and expertise on educational design and instruction, organizational strategy;
- Facilitate online courses.

March 2009
Guyana

Sisters of Mercy – Volunteer

- Travelled to Guyana to volunteer at Mercy Boy's Home, St. John Boscoe Orphanage, and Mehaica Leprosy Hospital.

July 2003 – Present

Marathoner – Runner & Fundraiser

- Ran four marathons and four half marathons;
- Raised over $7,500 for the Whitman-Walker Clinic and the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society.

Summer 2007 & 2008
Washington, DC

Center for Progressive Leadership – Mentor

- Mentored interns in the progressive leadership program;
- Facilitated workshops on campaign finance reform.

May 2008 – Nov. 2008
Falls Church, VA

Vote for Change – Volunteer

- Door-to-door canvassing, voter ID, and voter registration in Fairfax County, VA.