Online Courses

USIP invites you to explore its online catalog of training in conflict management and peacebuilding. Professional development opportunities are now at your fingertips, conveniently available 24/7 in an on-demand format. Earn Certificates of Completion for each individual course, or work towards one of the two multi-course Certificate programs. Click the orange button above to enroll.

Courses

The foundation courses provide an overview and introduction to conflict prevention and transformation and the field of peacebuilding in general.

- Introduction to Peacebuilding—introduces participants to the basic concepts, terminology, and rationale for the prevention, mitigation, and resolution of conflicts.
- Civil Resistance and the Dynamics of Nonviolent Movements—provides a multidisciplinary perspective on nonviolent, civilian-based movements and campaigns that defend and obtain basic rights and justice around the world, and in so doing transform the global security environment.
